Day 7 - Where'd the puns go?

FRIDAY'S CALENDAR

8:00 am – Breakfast (Dining Hall)

11:00 am – Camp Evaluation (Rec Hall)

12:30 pm – Lunch (Dining Hall)

6:00 pm – Dinner (Dining Hall)

7:30 pm – Talent Show & Camp Awards (Rec Hall)

9:30 pm – Folk Dancing (but really, after Talent Show)

Weather: Sit Up Straight

The good times continue, with a high of 79°F.

And, you'll have a nice, brisk, evening low of 57°F.

Stay hydrated. And, consider working on your posture. (The Twin Pines will always recommend good posture).

Talent Night

Rec Hall • 7:30 pm

Although tradition to sign up at 5 o'clock, you could sign up earlier with Jeremy Bullis. If you have felt the creative muse flowing in your blood till this point, tonight is your chance to shine. Got a song... got a poem... got a tight five? Whatever it is, bring it to the Rec hall. BUT, before that, bring it to the sign up sheet.

Double the Money – Double Your Lodge

Incredible items were bought and sold. Did you walk away with a homemade ukulele? Two historic hammock chairs, or a set of inlaid French knives (including the butter knife!?) – if so, you know how amazing the auction was. And, if not, how could you have missed the call to auction and the call to action from the champ caller, James Sword. Even Victor does not yet know how much money was raised (let's hope it's a lot)!

And, reminder, if you haven't settled up your auction debts, please see Heather.

Camp Feedback and Review

Rec Hall • 11:00 am

Giving feedback isn't always easy. At Co-op Camp we set aside special time for campers to feel comfortable voicing concerns, appreciations, issues, suggestions, and questions. Heather and Victor and others will be present to share in the proceedings and answer questions that arise. Your input helps keep Camp relevant, fun, running smoothly, and planning for the future. Join us.

Karae-Okay! More like, Karae-nomenal.

Looks like Camp may have a new tradition for the Week at a Glance – karaoke was a smash success! K-J Drew Navarro unlocked the lead vocal talents, and Campers brought their collective energy – recreating through harmony, with full emotion heft, everyone from Usher to Bruce Springsteen, and everyone in between.

Editor's note: at the time this of writing this article, we could not comment on the end of the Karaoke event. Because, it was STILL going (circa 11:28 pm).

What an A-Rae-Zing Week

Be sure to bring your wallet to dinner, because as much as we can say "thank you" to our awesome staff in words, the best way to say thank you to the staff is with cash money. We can all agree that the cabins have been cleaner than they have any right to be, the meals have been any better than they have been, and the general feeling in camp has been absolutely in amazing. Owed in no small part to the camp staff and board.

Be sure to give a huge thank you, along with a big tip, at tonight's dinner. Bins will be sent around for cash collection.

Fresh faced first time camper confounded by camp that does not change!

Be overjoyed fellow campers to learn that even the dewey-eyed first timers among you are delighted by all the traditions that may have become passé to some of you!

The wonder of the seeing the carnival turn ordinary folks into spectacular hat wearing tattooed whirling dervishes!

The delightful co-operative capitalism of the auction driving usually reseeded campers to toss their hands into the air for ukuleles and tattoos!

And of course the scenery which manages to dazzle in spite of all the recent traumas of the world!

It is quite possible that camp has worked its magic once again, well done everyone!

How Do These Keep Getting In Here?

What do compliments have in common with plateaus?
... both of them are the highest form of flattery!

Are You Cross At Words?

Not to bury the LEDE but, feeling stuck? TOTE your SKINS to the CAMP STORE, REEL in some OTHER SOULS in the AREA, them's into THAT TYPE of thing. And, don't SLUR the EDITOR.

Thanks, Ken!

Looking Ahead

- Talent show tonight!
- Check out is at 11:00 AM tomorrow. Be sure to sweep up, and check under the bed. Anything you don't come back to claim within 60 days will be sold at public auction.

Co-op Colors

Twin Pines wants to shout out the stunning, the brilliant, the how-did-he-achieve-this-in-4-hours artwork of Evan?!?

Have fun, coloring Co-ops.

PS – crayons in the 'shack.
