The Talented Mr. Bullis

Talent (hosting) clearly runs in the family, as Jeremy's first year as M.C. knocked it all the way to the Swamp! With participants from age 5 to roster elder (e)'s, the acts were better than ever! Looks like 13 is a great number after all... couldn't have asked for a better set of acts.

Money Talks

Fundraising this year was a smashing success! The final auction total was $1632.50, even though James Sword declined the generous bid of $420 for getting Milo Sword a Giants tattoo. The Carnival raised a further $280 which, when combined with the auction, means a whopping $1912.50 for the Double Lodge remodel!

In recognition of their amazing work this year, Campers opened their wallets to the tune of a tip of $936 for the amazing Camp Sierra Staff. We are so, so grateful for their work this week, but don't let that stop you from giving them another thank-you today! Staff said, "Co-op is our favorite!"

Karaoe-correction

Twin Pines would like to correct an earlier article which claimed that Karaoke ended within the hourly confines of Thursday. As of this morning, we have learned that the tunes continued into the wee hours of Friday, wrapping up in the vicinity of 4... (could it have been 5??) ... in the morning. Hope they got some coffee!

There Is Such a Thing as Cleanup

Co-ops love to pitch in, right?! While we always try to be as clean as possible, it is especially important this year to get your room tidy before heading home, as another group will be high on our heels arriving at 2pm! The Staff thanks you!

Test Yourself Before You Wreck Yourself

One of the things we love about Camp is coming together with friends we haven't seen all year. Just remember though, with Co-ops coming from all different areas, it is always a good idea to swab again when you get home, before re-integrating with your normal community.

And if you have any second thoughts, just think over these wise words from our very own Kai Weber: "Test. It feels really, really good!"

Jennifer the Menace-er

The collective spirit of Hunters, and Burnhams, and Zweig's (... oh my!) was felt in the Assembly Hall last night, for the final installment of Folk Dancing 2022. We got in all the hits, despite having to contend with a new booty-bumping dance trouble maker. Though, luckily our old days of warding off those Sue Jiffy-Mixer scoots had our defenses on high.

There were also reports that the late Bill Chester was seen sneaking off to do a quick Miserlou while Ernee racked up a tab at the Store, slurping down a cold Chocolate Coke (or two)! Hopefully by next summer their memorial bench will be sit-ready outside the Craft Shack ... till then!

Art Never Gets Old . . .

... just ask Carson, Ernee, or Quentin!

Tasteless Joker

What did one cannibal say to the other?
...Hey – does this clown taste funny??

*Editor's Note: Let's hope this joke isn't based on real events.
Has anyone seen our previous joke writer??*

Aliens In Camp?

Ten points for anyone knows WHAT this is:

Spotted in the parking lot at approx. 11 pm PST. Please report any missing campers to the ET abduction hotline @ 510-595-0873.

Solution to Friday's Puzzle

Looking Ahead

- Before you leave, remember to pick up your tie dye from King's porch!
- And... we may have mentioned this.. but please clean up! Thank you!
- We are hearing rumors of an All-Camp reunion in the Bay Area. Late summer? Fall? Details to follow. Definitely don't ask Amy about this.
- Register for Camp – 2023! Just around the corner! Camp Sierra will be requiring an earlier, larger, deposit for next year, so please register as soon as possible.
