WEATHER

79/58. I like it. I'm gonna want to be in a body of water.

WHERE ARE YOU GOING TO BE AT LUNCH TIME??

NOT in the dining hall! Make sure to come to breakfast to pack your bag lunch. Take your food, enjoy the day, and catch ya back at dinner.

KID'S FISHING TRIP!

Meet at the flag pole at 10:00 AM,
or better yet, make it 9:55 AM!
Let's drive up that lovely windy road to Huntington and see what kind of fish we can catch! Will they be brown? Will they be rainbow?
Will be they zero? Check tomorrow's paper to find out!

FIRST DIP'S A SHOCK!

Wooooo the swimming hole is COLD!! It's back and running. Take your turn at captaining the raft! There's no paddle, so keep your eyes peeled for good sticks. Be careful, Balsam Creek is flowing. Take care walking the perimeter.

CAMP STYLES

A new multigenerational fashion craze is sweeping through camp. Keep an eye out for these tie-dye trend setters.

WHERE ARE YOU GOING TO BE AT DINNER TIME??

NOT in the dining hall!
BBQ Area - be there, or be square (dancing).

THEATRE GAMES

Let's gather for some silly, spirited, and stimulating shenanigans. No experience necessary. Rec hall. Laughter guaranteed!

BOARD GAMES, ANYONE?

We brought a load of board games to play this summer. Our favorites! Taboo, Banana-grams, bak-gammon, Don't Over Think It, Rummikub, among others! Come play with us! Afternoons or evenings!

Playfully yours, Naomi and Maya

CANDLE MAKING

David didn't write an article. But editor's note: do not burn any candles at Camp, lest you feel the wrath of Rae. But ...have fun making your candles!!

CARNIVAL TOMORROW

Don't forget to let Moriah know if you want to do a booth! Bring back old favorites, new ideas - everything is welcome! Starts at dusk on Wednesday. I don't know where else you'd be.. NOT at the dining hall?

CO-OP FITNESS

Co-op fitness was a blast! So much of a blast that we have to take a day off - Tuesdays and Thursdays will be rest days, but come join us Wednesday and Friday!

RAMBLINGS OF AN AGING CAMPER

The deck at Double Lodge is uncommonly quiet this year, but the breeze still cools it and the tanager still hops among the pine branches. Walking past the pools and rapids of Big Creek above China Peak reveals a dazzling display of wildflowers. Tiny pretty-face peeks from under the Manzanita, while Mariposa lillies stand their solitary watch all around. The wild mountain azaleas mass themselves near the stream and intoxicate the air with their aroma.

Mountain pride and deep magenta penstemon cluster at the base of boulders, while the unfortunately named Rayless ragwort stands around in tall, showy bunches.

Down the hill, teams of ologists wait to tend my aging frame, with their engaging intimations of mortality. After four decades on the deck of Double, some awareness of absence is probably inevitable. Some folks have returned after several years, some are just not here this year. And some never will be here again. But here, in this moment, are many familiar and friendly faces, and farther up the hill, cooling breeze blows, and a trout jumps out of the pond below the waterfall and enjoys his lunch.

-Ed Biglin

PLAYGROUND'S CREW

Third year camper Rowan pitched in on playground maintenance. All work was quality-controlled by playground supervisor Juniper.

CHALLAH BAKE ANYONE?

If you're hankering for real, fresh baked Challah for this Shabbat, come to Spring House Friday morning (cerca 10-10:30 am), to take part in a communal bread-making adventure. We will mix the dough, pound it, roll it and let it rise. After lunch, we'll braid it, let it rise again, and put it in the oven. Fresh baked Challah can't be beat!

Yummmmm!

See you Friday!

UKULELE CLASS A MUSICAL SUCCESS!

Rodney did a great job leading us aspiring Ukulele players in several rounds of songs. (It's incredible to think he hand made all his Ukes!) Victor was joined by Julie and extended family from upstate New York! Yay! Welcome New Yorkers! Class will pick up again on Wednesday!

SPORTZ REPORT

On Monday the stars shone out - Messi and Mbappé and Haaland all bagged a brace. Attention: can Harry Kane keep up? Can Cristiano Ronaldo deliver??

Up next: We got Germany, we got Ghana. Tony's gonna be wearing the black stars.

First game: Portugal vs. Uzbekistan 10:00 AM PST

Then: England vs. Ghana 1:00 PM PST

Followed by: Panama vs. Croatia 4:00 PST

LET'S ZYDECO!

Zydeco is a music and dance genre that hails from rural southwest Louisiana. It originated with the local Creole culture and evolved along side Cajun music, another music and dance genre brought by immigrants to Louisiana from Nova Scotia. There's a fascinating history of the two genres and how they competed and interacted over the years, that you can ask Rodney about, but the thing to know about Zydeco is that it is eminently danceable! The music was originally played on an accordion, a scrub-board and a fiddle. The songs were often sung in French. Nowadays the music has a definite urban influence, with the addition of guitars and drums playing blues and rhythm and blues. The best part is that Zydeco is super fun to dance to. It is really just a basic two-step, often danced with a partner, but there are line dances that anyone can join. If you are curious, let me or Rodney know and we can set up a mini class one of these evenings before Folk dancing. Come check it out!

-Naomi

REASONS TO BE CHEERFUL

Yesterday's 'Social Hour' marched on far more than an hour though I was not protesting the presence of brie, chips, cherries, jam, and salsa. We brought chips and dip that'll make you challah. Our lovely campers brought wine and a mystery beer (color me interested).

Tuesday and Thursday's Social Hour yet to be decided. If you've an assertion to host, please seek out Christopher "Bob Hope" Benson.

Wednesday's Social Hour at 5:00 pm at Double Lodge.
Friday's Social is Shabbat at Circle Lodge.

HOROSCOPES

Aries: Even though you want to follow your brain or head, follow your nose

Taurus: Jack couldn't climb the beanstalk without help from above. Keep your eye out.

Gemini: The sweetest peaches are from Georgia, but Georgia also pees when she meets new people. Watch your feet.

Cancer: Feeling crabby???

Leo: Rawwahhhh.

Virgo: If you meet a Cancer, buy them ice cream.

Libra: Do you think the glass is half empty or half full? It's hot out, just jump in the Swimming Hole.

Scorpio: Thank me later.

Sagittarius: If Molly gives your a mystery beer, don't drink it. Or maybe just try it, but don't finish it.

Capricorn: Don't you wish you were an Aquarius??

Aquarius: Yeah, they do.

Pisces: The fish are jumping. Catch what you want, throw it back if it's too small.
