Bag Lunch

Good morning! Remember that if you want lunch today, you must go to breakfast and bag it up for yourself. Dinner will be served at the Barbecue Pit.

Sing Along

In Co-op Camp tradition, Victor (or whoever else would like to) will strum along on guitar for songs chosen by participants from Rise Up Singing and Rise Again. The more voices joining in joyful discordant harmony, the better. Come on down! You won't regret it.

Campfire

When: Dusk

Where: Flagpole

Remember: it's just a forest fire if you're not there.

The Truth About Big Creek Pool

As regards the hours of Big Creek pool, misinformation was (regrettably) twice given and twice conveyed to you. We regret the errors. Here's the official story:

Local Shaver Restaurant Review

The Point was closed early for the day. Reopens Friday.

Pivoting to Pub N' Grub. Fine dining, but it wasn't fine dining. Does what it says on the tin.

What A Relief Workshop (Part 1)

Chris Benson's (Bob Hope's) Relief Workshop was a great success today. Chris taught us how to use the equipment and let us loose to make our own reliefs. Everyone finished, and Chris printed up proofs for us to see before he makes a final copy tonight. There are two more sessions (Wed and Fri at 3:00) so come and see how it feels to create a real piece of art in one sitting!

Co-op Fitness

In case you missed it on the Week-at-a-Glance, get your sweat on every morning with Faith in the Rec Hall at 7 AM.

All fitness levels welcome.

Swimming hole? More like swimming full (of Sand)

No means no, diving that is. Low levels of water (or is it high levels of sand and debris) mean that campers will be only dipping their toes in the "warm" water this year. Also, good luck floating on the raft.

Bell Bottom Bullies Strike Again

Who ARE the bell bottom bullies and what sort of chaos are they causing? Time travelers? Trendy fashionistas with a pension for 70s trousers? Your parents!? Be on the lookout. Trust us, the identity(s) bidmay surprise you.

Who or What IS that??

It seems like the electric bear fencing is doing absolutely nothing. At least this time he is helping to clean up after his friends.

Wonderful Waterfall: Rated 💧💧💧💧

An intrepid group of Co-Op hikers, led by Noah Friedman-Biglin and Riana Betzler, walked over to Rancheria Falls on Sunday. The hike, a relatively easy 1-mile walk with a slight hill in the middle, is accessible to hikers of all skill-levels. The falls, flowing magnificently from the record snow runoff, are well worth seeing. There's a off-road portion of the drive, so people interested in seeing the falls should take care driving to the parking lot (that also has a bathroom). The trail is well maintained, and there are very nice viewing platforms closer to the falls. Though the falls are flowing, because the walk is easy it has become a very popular hike in recent years. The parking lot tends to be full in the afternoon, and you are very likely to encounter other hikers. Final verdict: falls amazing, popularity of hike mixed: 3.5 droplets.
