Day 1 · Life is short...

DAY'S CALENDAR

8:00 AM - Breakfast

10:30 AM - Camp Planning Meeting (Rec Hall)

12:15 PM - Kids Crafts Sign Up (Playground)

12:30 - Lunch

5:00 Happy Hour (TBA)

6:00 - Dinner

8:00 PM - Folk Dancing (Rec Hall)

WEATHER

The temps should be trending upward from here on out. Today we've got a high of 72, but keep a jacket handy for tonight's low of 54.

CHILDCARE UPDATE

All children, 2 years old and up, are welcome to join us for Co-op Camp Childcare! Please sign up today before lunch (12:15) on the playground. Childcare runs from 9:00 - 12:00, Monday through Friday. Please note, we end at 10:30 am on Thursday for All Day Hike Day. We hope parents will sign up to volunteer to help out for an hour or two during the week. It's going to be lots of fun!! Yay!

SWIMMING HOLE IS OPEN AND BEAUTIFUL

The aftermath of the Creek Fire and unusually high runoff from two heavy snow years, caused the Swimming Hole drain to clog. A special permit was obtained and many hundreds of hours were volunteered. After two years of resembling a swamp, instead of a pool, the Camp Sierra Swimming Hole clean out is complete.

Special thanks to Board members Russ Aubuchon, Doug MacNiell, Dave Thompson, and Bret McArron along with other volunteers for their hard and persistent work.

The GoFundMe raised nearly $10,000. Also, thanks to all site holders and friends who contributed funds to complete the job.

CAMP IS WHAT YOU MAKE IT

Co-op Campers love tradition, but we also love mixing it up! Come to the Camp Planning Meeting at 10:30 AM in the Rec Hall today with ideas old and new. Let's make a week to remember: the goal is to make it as difficult as possible for Molly to fit everything onto a single sheet Week-At-A-Glance.

DADS IN VOGUE

Today is not only the longest day of the year, but it's Father's Day! Give our Camp Dads some extra love today - and I hear Ken's Market is an excellent last minute gift emporium. If a small corked bottle of gold flakes the size of your pinky doesn't say "you're a great dad," I don't know what does. Happy Father's Day to all fathers and father figures.

GUESS WHO

If you have any questions about any of the below - these are the campers to talk to:

Childcare: Moriah Grey

Camp Nurse: Jessie Davidson

Newspaper: Molly Wedel

AND NOW, A FEW WORDS FROM CAMP SIERRA

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

If you hear a siren, please report to the flagpole.

DON'T BURN, BABY, BURN

The BBQ area and fire pit (under the flag pole) are the only areas where smoking is allowed. No candles or open flames - we love Smokey, but hope for only social visits this week!

SHHHHHHH....

As is the custom, Camp enjoys a quiet hour from 10PM - 7 AM. Thank you in advance for your cooperation!

No Need to Store the Store Hours

The Camp Sierra Store will be open the following days/hours:

Sunday · 2:00-3:00 PM & 7:30 – 9 PM

Monday · 2:00-3:00 & 7:30 – 9 PM

Tuesday · 7:30-9:00 PM

Wednesday · 2:00-3:00 & 7:30 – 9 PM

Thursday · 7:30-9:00 PM

Friday · 2:00-3:00 & 7:30 – 9 PM

Hours are posted on the store so you don't need to memorize them.

CHOW DOWN

Breakfast 8:00 AM

Lunch 12:30 PM

Dinner 6:00 PM

And, speaking of chow, the kitchen staff works hard to feed us. Traditionally, Co-op campers will tip the staff at Friday night dinner. If you are leaving camp before Friday, please consider tipping in advance. You can give cash to Rae or use these electronic payment methods. Rae and Paul will convert to cash and include in the "bowl" that gets passed around Friday. Thank you!

THE FUTURE IS IN YOUR HANDS

Take your recycling home. Pack it in, pack it out. Think Burning Man. You brought it out here, bring it home with you. Leave the forest the way you found it (or better)!

Oh, and by the way, if you bump into a stray piece of litter (or something else inappropriate for the forest), take it out. Be mindful, this part of the forest is trying to heal itself from the fire, so let's not give it our garbage to work with.

WHY WIFI?

How bout you think twice before you take out your phone? But on that third thought, here's the info on the WiFi.

Network: Camp Sierra Guest

No password required.

Generally reaches the upper camp area, and is strongest by the Store Porch.

THE SKY WAS FALLING!

Dancers last night evoked a certain C. Little, noticing objects seemingly falling from the sky! Though these weren't acorns but small push-pins - luckily Jessie's eagle eye spotted it before any bare feet got pricked! Not all pins are confirmed found - so keep those eyes sharp (especially when foregoing shoes).

PARKING LOT PARTY CRASHER

On Memorial Day weekend, this rattlesnake slithered across the parking lot, headed towards the Shadrack duplex. He/she was safely relocated a long way from camp.

MOUNTAIN WINDS OVERHERD AT CAMP

“Heather’s car will outlive her”

WHATS BLACK AND WHITE AND READ ALL OVER (AGAIN)?

You may have noticed some recycled content from last year’s Welcome Edition of the Pines. There is no such thing as garbage, right?! Well that’s because the editorial staff needs YOUR help flushing out this fine publication.

Send us articles, photos, mountain winds and mindful musings, to:

SCOPE IT OUT

Aries: Today is the day for you to learn a new yo-yo trick.

Taurus: Keep marching to the beat of your own turning signal.

Gemini: There is magic in the air. No purification necessary.

Cancer: A Wizard walks among you.

Leo: Onion rings from the Hungry Hut will provide the fuel you need to tackle the issue you’ve been struggling with.

Virgo: Make sure to double knot your sandals.

Libra: The Potholes are calling, but your voicemail box is full.

Scorpio: Go for that second helping at Happy Hour.

Sagittarius: Take the plunge (into the Swimming Hole).

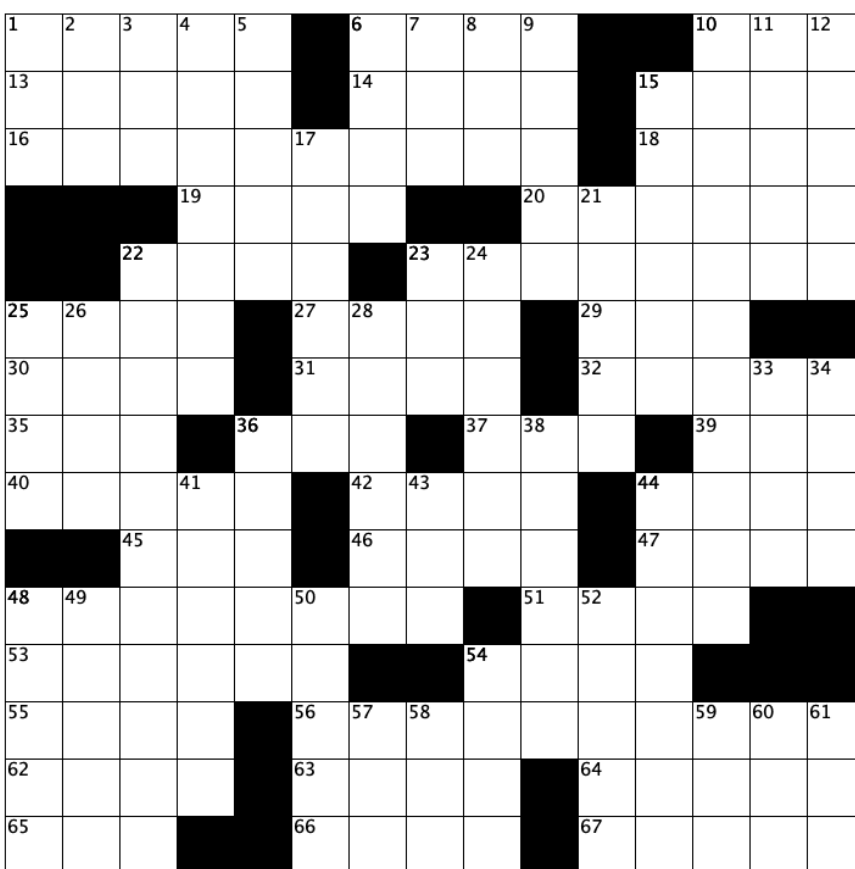

Capricorn: Someone at home wants to know where you left the garlic salt.

Aquarius: It’s 2026: hug a tree!

Pisces: A pencil is a woodpecker’s best friend.
